General Information

Marian University is an independent, Catholic, coeducational comprehensive liberal arts university. Its aim is to provide its students with a liberal arts education including the humanities, the natural sciences, and the social sciences, as well as a concentration of study in a specific discipline. Degrees offered include the Associate in Arts, Associate of Business Administration, Associate in Science, Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Business Administration, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Science in Nursing, and Master of Arts in Teaching. Request an application for admission by writing the Office of Admission, Marian University, 3200 Cold Spring Road, Indianapolis, Indiana 46222-1997 or calling 317.955.6300 or 800.772.7264. Applications may also be submitted online at www.marian.edu. Marian University does not discriminate in enrolling students on the basis of age, sex, race, sexual orientation, creed, national or ethnic origin, or physical handicap.

Upon admission, and after receipt of a letter from the Registrar:

1. Complete placement testing.
2. Plan schedule with an academic advisor.
3. Register for classes in the Office of the Registrar.
4. Make payment arrangements by the first day of the summer session.

Registration and Late Registration

Current students may register for a summer class online through their CAMS student portal until 4 p.m. on the last weekday before the first scheduled day of that class. Students who have not registered for a course by this deadline may register in person at the Office of the Registrar on the first day of that class. The instructor's signature will be required and a $50 late registration fee will be charged. Students will not be permitted to register for a course after its first scheduled class meeting day.

Due to the accelerated nature of summer courses, students are advised not to take more than one 5 week or two 6 week classes simultaneously.
