Commencement 2021

The 84th Annual Commencement of Marian University

SATURDAY, MAY 8, 2021

10 A.M.

MARIAN UNIVERSITY
INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA

Marian University grew out of the dedication and vision of Sister Theresa Hackelmeier and the Sisters of St. Francis, Oldenburg, Indiana, who established a school in Oldenburg, Indiana, in 1851. After a number of transformations, the school became Marian College in 1936. The college moved to Indianapolis in 1937 and classes began on September 15 in Allison Mansion.

On July 1, 2009, Marian College became Marian University. On May 4, 2011, Marian University received pre-accreditation status for a new medical school. On August 24, 2011, the university broke ground on the Michael A. Evans Center for Health Sciences that houses the Marian University College of Osteopathic Medicine and the Leighton School of Nursing. On August 6, 2013, Marian University held a ribbon-cutting ceremony and reception for the Michael A. Evans Center for Health Sciences. The College of Osteopathic Medicine matriculated its first class in August 2013 and held its inaugural commencement ceremony on May 7, 2017.

Honorary Degrees

Chief Justice Loretta H. Rush
Commencement Speaker
Recipient of Doctor of Jurisprudence

Loretta H. Rush took the oath of office as Indiana’s 108th Supreme Court Justice in November 2012 after being appointed by Governor Mitch Daniels. She was retained by voters in 2014. The Judicial Nominating Commission named her Chief Justice in August 2014, and she was reappointed as Chief Justice in 2019.

As Chief Justice, Rush is responsible for supervising the entire judicial branch. That includes administration and funding of court programs across the state. A central administrative office with multiple agencies works under Rush’s direction to handle everything from caseload measures, to technology updates, to admission and discipline of lawyers.

Chief Justice Rush serves as vice president of the Conference of Chief Justices Board of Directors, is a member of National Center for State Courts Board of Directors, and recently led response efforts to the addictions crisis as co-chair of the National Judicial Opioid Task Force. She was also recently appointed by Chief Justice John Roberts to serve as a member of the Judicial Conference Committee on Federal-State Jurisdiction. In addition to being a member of local, state, and national bar associations, Chief Justice Rush is a Life Fellow of the American Bar Foundation. She is an Academy of Law Alumni Fellow for the Maurer School of Law and chairs or is a member of several commissions including the Commission on Improving the Status of Children in Indiana and the Judicial Nominating/Qualifications Commission.

Chief Justice Rush was named the 2018 Indiana Chamber Government Leader of the Year. She has also received the Purdue University Distinguished Alumni Award with induction into the Boiler Business Exchange Hall of Fame, the Indianapolis Bar Association’s Antoinette Dakin Leach Award, the Indiana Civil Rights Commission Spirit of Justice Award, and the Indiana Business Journal Women of Influence Award.

Chief Justice Rush was born in Pennsylvania and moved frequently as a child before settling in Indiana in 1972. She earned her undergraduate degree from Purdue University and her law degree from Indiana University Maurer School of Law, both with honors. She is married to Jim Rush with four children and three grandchildren.

Marian University is privileged to award an honorary doctorate to Chief Justice Loretta H. Rush, who has generously employed her gifts and talents to lead Indiana’s Supreme Court and serve the public at large.

Honorary Degrees

Frank D. Walker Recipient of Doctor of Philanthropy

Frank D. Walker is chairman emeritus of Walker Information, a customer experience advisory firm serving national and international clients headquartered in Indianapolis. He also serves as president of The Walker Family Foundation.

After graduating from DePauw University in 1957, Walker served as a lieutenant in the United States Air Force. In 1960, he joined the family business, founded in 1939 by his mother, Dorothy “Tommie” Walker. He was chairman and chief executive officer from 1983-94, stepping down when his son, Steve, the third generation, took command. In addition to Walker’s son, one daughter and two grandchildren work for the company.

In 1990, Walker received the Individual Enterprise Award from the Indianapolis Business Journal. In 1994, the Indiana Chamber of Commerce named Walker Outstanding Business Leader of the Year, and in 1998, he was the Distinguished Leadership Award recipient. In 2000, he was elected to the Indiana Business Hall of Fame, and he was named a Sagamore of the Wabash in 2004.

Walker has a passion for studying the field of ethics, and throughout his career, Walker earned a reputation as a proponent of ethical operating procedures and high standards of performance. In 2018, Walker and The Walker Family Foundation helped to establish and fund the Walker Center for Applied Ethics at Marian University.

Walker is married to the former Jane S. Tatman. They have four children and eight grandchildren.

Marian University is pleased to award an honorary doctorate to Frank D. Walker for his dedication to the research and application of ethics and service to the community.

Peter Salvador Piazza Recipient of Doctor of Business

Peter Salvador Piazza and his father, Paul, founded Piazza Produce, a local and family-owned produce supplier, in 1970. They started the company with a single truck, making regular runs to the historic Indianapolis produce terminal, and years of hard work that established Piazza Produce as a trusted foodservice provider.

Throughout the years, Piazza Produce has joined with some of the nation’s leading organizations to provide customers with unique products and the freshest produce available. Today, the company offers a wide array of produce, locally sourced goods, specialty items, and more. Piazza Produce delivers to over 150 surrounding cities including those in Ohio, Kentucky, Illinois, and Michigan, allowing them a large distribution network in which they are able to back haul and deliver products from producers who need help distributing their products.

Piazza and his wife, Shari, enjoy and value the importance of spending time with their family whether it be during holidays, weekend pool gatherings, dinners, or vacations. Piazza’s faith is his rock and rarely does he miss Mass throughout the week.

Marian University is pleased to award an honorary doctorate to Peter Salvador Piazza for his leadership in the food service industry and commitment to providing the Indianapolis community and beyond with locally sourced goods and high-quality produce.

Michele Dvorak, PHJC, Ed.D.
Recipient of Doctor of Religious Education

Michele Dvorak, PHJC, Ed.D., is a member of the Poor Handmaids of Jesus Christ and currently serves as the president of Ancilla College in Donaldson, Indiana.

Dr. Dvorak earned her Doctor of Education in Private School Administration at the University of San Francisco in 1998 and has served as an educator and administrator at every level of the education spectrum such as elementary, secondary, and higher education. Since 1985, she has served in administrative positions including vice president of academic affairs and director of the education program at Calumet College of St. Joseph. In addition to her work in education, Dr. Dvorak has also served as a member of the Poor Handmaids of Jesus Christ leadership team since 2013. This team shares leadership responsibilities for the long-range planning of the community, which includes the advancing of the directions set by the community.

Dr. Dvorak has received several awards including the Saint Joseph the Worker Award, Criminal Justice Club Award, Dissertation Forum Presenter at the University of San Francisco, Graduate Merit Scholarship, Big Shoulders Principal Award, South Chicago Chamber of Commerce Award, and the Excellence in Management Award from the Archdiocese of Chicago. In 2006, the Dvorak Award was established at Calumet College of St. Joseph and is presented annually to an education student. Dr. Dvorak has also presented at many speaking engagements and authored scholarly papers.

In August 2020, Dr. Dvorak and Marian University President Daniel J. Elsener announced a strategic collaboration of mission between Ancilla College and Marian University. Starting July 1, 2021, the new entity will be Ancilla College of Marian University.

Marian University is pleased to award an honorary doctorate to Dr. Michele Dvorak for her leadership and dedication to advancing the Catholic educational mission and experience.

OUR VISION

To provide an education distinguished in its ability to prepare transformative leaders for service to the world.

At Marian University we achieve this vision by preparing graduates who are:

- knowledgeable and professional;
- inquisitive in a broad, multi-dimensional, and critical way;
- ethically informed and holistic in perspective; and
- spiritually mature.

OUR MISSION

To be a great Catholic university dedicated to providing students with excellent teaching and learning in the Franciscan and liberal arts tradition.

OUR FRANCISCAN SPONSORSHIP VALUES

Our campus welcomes students of all faiths who seek an educational experience that emphasizes a Franciscan understanding of the sponsorship values of dignity of the individual, peace and justice, reconciliation, and responsible stewardship, informed by prayer.

Upon this strong foundation are three pillars of strength, on which all of the accomplishments of the Marian University community rest:

- a commitment to excellent teaching and learning;
- curriculum and programs in the liberal arts, Franciscan, and Catholic traditions; and
- a campus community that creates a rich faith, culture, and social environment that nurtures high academic achievement and the ultimate purposes of higher education.

We create remarkable futures for those who attend Marian University by strengthening and building on these pillars.
