

GREECE: BIO360- BIOLOGY INTERNSHIP/BMS CAPSTONE EXPERIENCE MAY 6-15 2026

- Explore environmental physiology, exercise, and aging in applied cross-cultural contexts in this course taught by Dr. Jonathan Lowery in partnership with University of Thessaly. BMS students can count this experience towards their capstone project.
- The majority of the program will take place on the island of Crete, program includes a day trip to the island of Santorini, farm and beach excursions, and pottery workshops.
- Course Fee: $4080 (undergraduate), $4250 (graduate)
 - Includes tuition (1 credit), housing, in-country transportation, some meals, entrance fees and international health insurance. Does not include international flights.

Interested?
Contact Marian
University Study Abroad Office

abroad@marian.edu