

HEALTHCARE IN GUATEMALA SPRING BREAK 2026: MARCH 1-8

- This study abroad experience is embedded in NSG418: Service in Global/Local Communities. Students must be registered for this course to participate and Junior/Senior Class Standing (62 credits)
- Students will serve at a hospital in Guatemala City and give presentations on public health topics to local schools. Includes a visit to the beautiful historic city of Antigua.
- Program Fee: $2275 (all inclusive)
 - Includes housing, in-country and international transportation, all meals, excursions/entrance fees and international health insurance
- Taught by Prof. Laura Fishburn (lnevillefishburn@marian.edu) and Teri Farno (tfarno@marian.edu)

CALL OUT MEETINGS:
9/18, 9/25

Scan code to sign up for information sessions.

Questions?
Contact Marian University Study Abroad Office

abroad@marian.edu