GERMAN HOSPITAL SHADOWING INTERNSHIP 3 WEEKS IN MAY & JUNE 2025

- Marian University, in partnership with Dr. Michael Feldmann at the Agaplesion Diakonie Hospital in Rotenburg (Wümme), Germany offers 3-week shadowing internship opportunities in surgery and radiology.
- Agaplesion Hospital: a faith-based hospital & the teaching hospital of the University of Hamburg's Medical School. It has twenty-three specialized clinics and over 800 beds and is ranked as offering the highest level of care in Germany.
- Marian students work with Dr. Michael Feldmann, the chief vascular surgeon & head of the Clinic for Vascular and Endovascular Surgery at the Agaplesion Diakonie Hospital since 2010.
- Total Cost Estimate: $1000 paid to Marian includes: tuition (1 cr.), housing, bedding/towels, welcome & departure dinners and int'l health insurance. We estimate that students will spend $2,600 of their own to cover flight, meals, ground transportation, and incidental expenses on this program.
