

HEALTHCARE IN GUATEMALA SPRING BREAK 2025: MARCH 2-8

- This study abroad experience is embedded in NSG418: Service in Global/Local Communities. Students must be registered for this course to participate.
 - Junior/Senior Class Standing (62 credits)
 - Partially satisfies cultural awareness and San Damiano requirements
- Students will serve at a hospital in Guatemala City and give presentations on public health topics to local schools. Includes a visit to the beautiful historic city of Antigua.
- Program Fee: $1975
 - Includes housing, in-country and international transportation, all meals, excursions/entrance fees and international health insurance
- Taught by Prof. Angie Myers (amyers@marian.edu) and Laura Neville-Fishburn (lnevillefishburn@marian.edu)

Scan code to sign up for information sessions.

Questions?

Contact Marian University Study Abroad Office

abroad@marian.edu